Admission Policy

We ask that you arrive at the test center 30 minutes before your scheduled appointment time. This will give you adequate time to complete the necessary sign-in procedures. Please be prepared to show two (2) valid forms of personal ID. Both must have your signature, and the primary ID must be a government issued picture ID. All primary IDs must be issued by the country in which you are testing. If you do not have a qualifying primary ID issued from the country you are testing in, a passport from your country of citizenship is required, along with a secondary ID. If you arrive more than 30 minutes late for your appointment, you may be refused admission and fees may be forfeited. No personal items may be taken into the testing room. This includes all bags, books not authorized by the sponsor, notes, phones, pagers, watches, wallets, food and beverages.

Reschedule Policy

- Candidates may not reschedule an appointment less than 24 hours prior to the appointment time.

Cancellation Policy

- Candidates may not cancel an appointment less than 24 hours prior to the appointment time.

Additional Information

- Candidates may attempt each certification exam up to five (5) times in a 12-month period, waiting a minimum of 14 days between attempts. Exam charges are incurred for each exam attempt. Exams that do not comply with this retake policy will be considered invalid and will not be eligible for refund and/or a certification credential. Once a passing score is achieved on a specific exam, no further attempts are allowed on that exam.

Pearson VUE will not be held responsible for expenses incurred beyond the cost of the exam, including but not limited to travel expense and lost wages on the day of the exam.

If you do not currently have an account and password for the Pearson VUE website, this can be requested at www.pearsonvue.com. After setting up your account, you will be able to review your appointment information and schedule, reschedule and cancel exams.

Pearson VUE's goal is to make your exam experience a pleasant one. We want to thank you for selecting Pearson VUE as your exam service provider, and we look forward to serving you again.
